

A MAN CALLED OVE – TASK OF THE DAY

“If you don’t know the story, you don’t know the man” (Backman 113).

Unit Questions:

1. We are all made up of a multitude of stories - what are your stories and what do they say about you?
2. First impressions can be deceiving – how do you know when you really know someone?

Chapter 5 (pg. 36-45)

Directions: You will do the following on a 3x5 card and turn it today!

1. IDK: Write an “I don’t get it” question about the chapters read. This is a question about either the plot or the characters. Something you didn’t understand while you were reading. We will attempt to answer these questions during the discussion in class.
2. Quote: Find an important quote from the text. Write the quote and where we can find the quote. Also briefly state what is happening when the quote is said.
3. DEEP Question (DQ): Based on the quote pose a deep question about life. It can be based on themes found in the book or general life experiences.

Example:

Daisy Espinoza
B1

Ove Chapter 1

1. IDK: Why does Ove need a computer?
2. Q: “I want a computer! A normal bloody computer!” Silence descends over the two men for a short while. The assistant clears his throat. (Backman 2). Ove goes to the store to buy a computer and is irritated with the sales associate because he can’t get him to understand what he wants/needs.
3. DQ: Why are there times in our lives where we refuse to listen to others? Why do we think we are the only one’s who are in the right?